ITINERARY OVERVIEW

Silversea's 'The Curious and the Sea' World Cruise 2026 will be divided into nine segments. Departing Fort Lauderdale on January 6, 2026, the voyage will see guests journey through Central America, before transiting the Panama Canal to the west coast of South America. Easter Island, French Polynesia, and the Pacific Islands will follow, leading guests to New Zealand and Australia. Travellers will then explore Southeast Asia, crossing the Bay of Bengal to Sri Lanka, India, and the Red Sea. Passing through the Suez Canal, the cruise line's guests will then arrive in the Mediterranean—touring the most enriching destinations throughout the region, before concluding the experience in Lisbon, Portugal, on May 27, 2026.

SEGMENT-BY-SEGMENT DESCRIPTIONS

1. A TALE OF TWO OCEANS: Fort Lauderdale to Callao (Lima) – January 6-January 19

Following a curated travel experience—including private executive transfers, Business class air, and a dedicated meet and greet service—world cruising guests will unite at an exclusive Bon Voyage reception in Fort Lauderdale on the evening of January 5, before spending a pre-cruise night in a luxury hotel and embarking Silver Dawn at leisure on January 6. Departing on January 6, Silver Dawn will call in Cozumel (Quintana Roo) and Puerto Limón (Costa Rica) for the first time on a Silversea World Cruise, before passing through the Panama Canal via Colon, arriving in Manta—another World Cruise first—and Callao (Lima).

2. AN EXPLORER'S PARADISE: Callao (Lima) to Papeete, Tahiti – January 19-February 7

Visited on a Silversea World Cruise for the first time since 2020, Easter Island will welcome Silver Dawn on an overnight call on January 25—known for its mysterious Moai statues, ancient history, and rugged landscapes. A 20-day deep dive of French Polynesia and the South Pacific follows, with all-new calls for a Silversea World Cruise in Nuku Hiva, the Marquesas Islands; Atuona, Hiva Oa, the Marquesas Islands; and Fakarava, with its UNESCO-listed biosphere reserve, in the Tuamotu Archipelago. Other highlight destinations will include iconic Bora Bora and Papeete in French Polynesia. A bespoke World Cruise event in French Polynesia will display the rich, historical seagoing cultures of local communities, with a seafood feast and cultural performances that connect guests with the soul of these spectacular islands.

3. TREASURE ISLANDS: Papeete, Tahiti, to Auckland – February 7-February 24

Taking guests deep into the South Pacific while sailing between Papeete and Auckland, Silver Dawn will unlock many new destinations for world cruising guests during this highly anticipated segment of the voyage. First-ever calls on a Silversea World Cruise in Tonga's Nuku'alofa, New Caledonia's Lifou and Noumea, and Norfolk Island will complement explorations of Aitutaki, Savusavu, Mystery Island, and Bay of Islands in New Zealand. Collaborating closely with the island's Chief and the local department of tourism, Silversea has curated a special event on Mystery Island in Vanuatu, complete with unprecedented enhancements for the remote destination. Dancers from various islands throughout the region will perform a unique fusion of cultural rituals, while guests dine on fresh catch of the day in a quintessential beach setting, and snorkel in some of the world's clearest waters, which teem with marine life.

4. NEW WORLD OF THE ANCIENTS: Auckland to Fremantle (Perth) – February 24-March 14

The start of a semi-circumnavigation of Australia, Silver Dawn will depart Auckland on February 24, setting course for Fremantle (Perth). Journeying along Australia's southern and western coastlines for the first time on a Silversea World Cruise, guests will admire some of the world's clearest night skies, retracing the steps of early explorers who looked to the stars for navigation. This segment will take in the country's most spectacular landscapes, with numerous opportunities to spot rare wildlife. An overnight call in Hobart (Tasmania) will precede calls in the rarely visited Phillip Island for the chance to see the penguin parade; Penneshaw (Kangaroo Island); Port Lincoln, for the Coffin Bay National Park and the Eyre Peninsula; and Busselton. Visiting Esperance for the first time on a Silversea World Cruise, travellers will be able to explore the white-sanded beaches of the Cape Le Grand National Park. Travellers will also discover two of Australia's most vibrant cities in Melbourne and Adelaide—the latter of which acts as a gateway to the Barossa Valley wine region.

5. THE CALL OF THE WIND: Fremantle (Perth) to Singapore – March 14-March 30

Calls between Fremantle (Perth) and Singapore will include Exmouth, Broome, and Darwin—taking in parts of the ancient Kimberley Coast—as well as Lembar (Lombok). In Benoa, Bali, on March 21, the cruise line's guests will feast on regional cuisine alongside the stunning rice paddies of the luxury five-star resort of Tanah Gajah. Authentic Balinese performances will enrich the occasion, as travellers develop a new appreciation for Southeast Asia's sacred grain, which migrated around the world thanks to the early seafarers.

6. ROUTES OF SILK & SPICE: Singapore to Mumbai – March 30-April 16

Guests will have the chance to deep dive into South Asia while sailing between Singapore and Mumbai, with extended stays allowing for greater exploration ashore. Overnight calls in Singapore, Cochin, and Mumbai; a late departure in Trincomalee; and calls in Port Klang (Kuala Lumpur), Phuket, Galle, and Colombo will unlock many of Asia's most iconic destinations in just 17 days, with multiple days at sea offering the chance to relax. On April 12 in Cochin, guests will journey into the city's backwaters to the town of Alleppey for a bespoke World Cruise event. Following an exhilarating tuk-tuk ride through the urban streets, guests will be greeted with flower garlands for an afternoon of cultural immersion, comprising performances from Kerala drummers, martial artist displays, an authentic Sadhya lunch served on banana leaves, and a cruise down the Kerala River on a traditional houseboat.

7. THE TIDES OF HISTORY: Mumbai to Ashdod (Jerusalem) – April 16-April 30

Departing Mumbai on April 16, Silversea's guests will head for the famous Suez Canal, taking in the 'tides of history' and the storied pasts of Oman, Egypt, and Jordan, before crossing into the Mediterranean. Calls in Salalah, Safaga (Luxor), and Aqaba (Petra) will provide gateways to many of the ancient world's most iconic sights, including temples, tombs, and colossal statues. An overnight call in Safaga (Luxor) will allow the opportunity to experience Bedouin life in the desert, as well as the Valley of the Kings, the River Nile, and the impressive temples of Luxor. A rite of passage for well-heeled travellers, a Suez Canal transit leads guests to Ashdod (Jerusalem) and an exploration of the Holy Land.

8. MEDITERRANEA: Ashdod (Jerusalem) to Split – April 30-May 12

Departing Jerusalem and the Holy Land, Silver Dawn will set her course for Split, and the crystal-clear waters and medieval towns of the Adriatic Sea—visited for the first time in many years on a Silversea World Cruise. After a full day in Haifa (Nazareth), guests will journey to Antalya, Turkey, on an overnight call; Rhodes, Greece; Aghios Nikolaos, Crete, for the first time on a Silversea World Cruise; Piraeus (Athens); Nafplion; Sarande, Albania; and Dubrovnik, Croatia, before arriving in Split on May 12.

9. THE ORIGINS OF EXPLORATION: Split to Lisbon – May 12-May 27

An emphatic finale to Silversea's 'The Curious and the Sea' World Cruise 2026, Silver Dawn will sail from Split to Lisbon between May 12 and May 27, unlocking many cultures in the Southern Mediterranean and Northern Africa that have not previously featured on a Silversea World Cruise. For the first time on one of Silversea's global voyages, guests will explore Hvar, Kotor, Bari, Trapani (Sicily), La Goulette (Tunis), and Cartagena (Spain), as well as discovering Siracusa (Sicily), Malaga, and Cadiz.

THREE IMMERSIVE OVERLAND PROGRAMMES

Facilitating deeper immersion into some of the planet's richest cultures, world cruising guests will have the option of joining three overland tours during the voyage:

- Uzbekistan – April 16-April 25
Leaving the ship in Mumbai, guests will have the chance to experience the ancient wonders of the Silk Road in Uzbekistan. They will explore the bustling bazaars of Tashkent, an historical commercial hub; Samarkand, with its characterful architecture; and the UNESCO-listed historic centre of Bukhara.
- Luxor, Egypt – April 26-April 31
From Safaga, Silversea’s guests can follow in the footsteps of ancient navigators, exploring the ancient wonders of Egypt, from the temples of Luxor to the Great Pyramid of Giza, the Valley of the Kings, and the Nubian Village on a luxurious Nile cruise.
- The Balkans – May 11-May14
Travellers will have the opportunity to journey overland to Belgrade, Serbia’s capital, which has been rebuilt almost 40 times throughout history. Guests will learn about the history of Yugoslavia, visiting the Museum of Yugoslav History, St. Sava Temple, and Novi Sad, the largest town in autonomous Vojvodina.

- What is special about S.A.L.T. on board the World Cruise 2026?

S.A.L.T. (Sea & Land Taste) is a unique culinary program designed to adapt and grow to reflect the changing food stories and culinary richness of every new itinerary. This is especially exciting on a journey as far-reaching and special as World Cruise 2026.

- SALT Kitchen: will take us through more than 80 fully distinct menus, each reflecting the foods and traditions of the places we visit. Along this journey of culinary discovery we'll come to know the earthy flavors of Peru, eat Pacific seafood in Polynesia, taste the melting-pot influences of the Israeli markets and the tart-spicy tom sam salad of Thailand; explore menus that span the regions of India and Sri Lanka, and sample the best of iconic localized specialities ranging from the green mussels of New Zealand to the jamon iberico of Spain.
- SALT Lab: In addition to hosting a set of Lab classes, WC26 will play host to a rotating roster of visiting Chefs, Regional Food Experts and Authors who will come onboard to give a series of Lab classes as well as Talks in the Theatre. The combination of daily classes as well as residencies from respected experts with the deepest knowledge of local foodways offers an in-depth curriculum of culinary exploration and discussion for those most passionate about the subject.
- S.A.L.T. BAR will offer a pretty astounding ~70 custom designed regional inspired cocktails and an even greater number of local wines, unique spirits and beers, a range you won't find anywhere else onboard and certainly nowhere else at sea. From small-distillery rum in Central America to craft pisco in Peru, from aromatic raki in Turkey to beautiful sherry in Andalusia. In addition, we'll host classes and guided tastings of wines from various regions, learn the history of Madeira, a fortified wine that owes its special properties to being sloshed around on epic sea journeys; plus mixology demonstrations to help you show off your newfound favorite spirits at home with cocktails recipes that remind you of the journey.

- S.A.L.T. Talks & Enrichment: For those with the curiosity to go beyond the plate and deepen their understanding of the food culture, and the people and traditions behind it, WC26 on Silver Dawn offers an unparalleled opportunity to taste and savor the world with our passionate team of SALT chefs, hosts, mixologists and sommeliers and visiting authors and experts as fellow enthusiast-explorers and capable guides.
- S.A.L.T. Ashore experiences: In addition, experience expertly crafted shore experiences in selected cities will bring guests closer to the authentic flavours, culinary history and traditions of the world. Two complimentary S.A.L.T. ashore culinary experiences among a selection of cities.
